

Philadelphia Mint;—

Have
you got an 1804 dollar
if not ~~not~~ what would you pay for one in good condition. I have one which I will dispose of. If you have no use for one could you inform concerning its value and give me a list of parties owning them
give me the number of these coins supposed
to exist—my coin is one
I can trace back 50 or 75 years

Respt

P.O. B. 95

R. C. Snow.

P.O. Box 95
Ware, Mass.
Nov. 1st 1895

R.C. Snow writes that he has an 1804 Dollar
in good condition. Will sell it at fair value, or wants the advice of Dealers, &c.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 191

[Abstract:] Writes that he has an 1804 Dollar in "good condition"...

Ware, Mass.
November 1, 1895

Philadelphia Mint; -

Have you got an 1804 dollar if not what would you pay for one in good condition. I have one which I will dispose of. If you have no use for one could you inform concerning its value and give me a list of parties owning then give me the number of these coins supposed to exist, My coin is one I can trace back 50 or 75 years.

Respt.
R.C. Snow
W.

P.O.B. 95